

About All Aboard Washington

For over forty years, All Aboard Washington (AAWA) has promoted better passenger and freight rail service in the Pacific Northwest. We champion safe, reliable, frequent, competitive, and convenient passenger rail services that meet the needs of all Washingtonians. We actively support intercity passenger rail service and intermodal connections with local transit as a door-to-door option for non-drivers, and for those who prefer not to drive.

AAWA's vision is to provide seamless, multimodal, public transportation connectivity for our region focused around a robust passenger rail system. Improved door-to-door connectivity (sidewalks, local public transit, intercity rail) provides economic, environmental and equity benefits to all, including underserved, low-income, and rural communities where transportation alternatives are limited, in recognition that nearly 30 percent of our population does not drive.

Community Outreach and Engagement

AAWA engages, educates and energizes the public, elected officials, business and local leaders, through outreach, Train Treks, presentations for legislators and communities, advocacy, soliciting resolutions and letters of support, publicity, coalition building and event planning.

Train Treks

In cooperation with All Aboard Northwest, All Aboard Washington conducts the "Train Trek" series of in-person and electronic meetings in communities of all sizes throughout our region.

Train Treks are an efficient and effective way to meet local stakeholders, gain valuable information, make local connections, and build coalitions needed to envision large-scale infrastructure projects.

In 2022, AAWA worked with the Pioneer Coalition to undertake a Train Trek along the route of the discontinued Pioneer that served Seattle-Portland-Pendleton-La Grande-Baker City-Boise-Salt Lake City and beyond. We met with many elected officials and community leaders, all of whom were anxious to work with us. In addition, Train Trek events were covered by the press in small towns and large cities.

Regional Cooperation

In addition to our work in Washington state, we represent the needs of rail passengers with such organizations as the Oregon Rail Advisory Committee, and The Oregon Rail Users' League (ORULE), while working to create similar organizations in Washington, as well as developing a region-wide working group that will facilitate rail needs among cooperation among states and Canadian provinces.
